

2025 TYRANT NATIONALS TOURNAMENT PREVIEW

Tyrant Wrestling is ready to kick off its 2025-2026 tournament schedule this Labor Day weekend with the 3rd annual Tyrant Nationals! New this year is the addition of the duals. This year's event will take place over 1 day only on Saturday, August 30th, although we envision this tournament to grow into a full 2 day event in the coming years. 26 total teams across 4 divisions will square off on 13 mats for the duals. 5 rounds of non-stop action packed duals resulting in the first ever Tyrant Nationals Duals champions. We'll wrestle on 16 mats for the Open individual tournament that follows the Duals awards.

18 States are represented by the competitors including:

PA, NJ, MD, NY, VA, DE, WV, IL, OH, FL, GA, NC, CT, TX, AL, LA, MA, WI.

For this preview, we will be focusing on the duals. Below you will find brackets, pools, etc. of how this weekend is set up for the teams. There are some familiar teams in the mix as well as some newer teams & wrestlers that we are not as familiar with. Which might be even better ... because now we all get to see which teams are going to show up, ready to wrestle, and jumpstart their season. Which teams are going to make a statement right from the first whistle? We'll just have to find out which teams want it the most.

The High School Duals will feature 8 teams in 2 pools of 4. The top 2 teams from each pool will advance to the semifinals.

Some quick notes about a few things to look out for in the high school division.

Hayden Black from 84 Athletes has been racking up several team OW awards at Tyrant Tournaments and is a name we always see performing well. He also is a 2025 VHSL State Champ from VA.

“The Fighting Irish” are surprisingly a team based out of FL! And they’re rolling in hot! Benito Barnhart is a 2025 State Runner-up. Erik Perez and Will McGowan are both state placers and Jalal Naghib is NHSCA Middle School All-American entering his freshman season.

Precision WC is a home state team from PA with a ton of hungry, determined wrestlers eager to keep improving and jumping levels. Expect them to be a squad who has been working hard and eager to get on the mat and show it.

Team Darkhorse is based out of NJ and features a similar lineup build to Precision WC in that they also have several experienced wrestlers eager to keep improving. Numerous state and region qualifiers who are hungry for more!

The MS, ES6, ES4 divisions will all be round robins, 5 rounds to determine the Champion team.

Team to look out for: Mat Warriors are the team with the most Tyrant tournament experience out of the MS field and therefore know exactly the level of intensity and match IQ needed to secure the win in these duals.
